

ANNEX 3

A CALL TO PRAYER-ECJ

(This call to prayer was written by me in 1984.)

1. A great wave of rebellion, recalcitrance and falling away have washed through a generation of young people. It affects the children of believers as well as unbelievers.
2. The reason for this attack upon our children and families is that Satan has set out to try to destroy the church of the end times.
3. This is a time to pray that the hearts of the children shall return to their fathers and mothers and that the hearts of the fathers and mothers will return to their children.
4. This is a time to pray that the prodigals will return home.
5. This is a time to pray for a great harvest of young men and young women.
6. This is a time to pray for young Daniels, Shadrachs, Meshachs and Abednegos to take their stand in the midst of a pagan generation.
7. This is a time to pray that women like Ruth and Esther will make righteous choices and stand up for God.
8. This is a time to pray for youth with courageous hearts that will gladly accept the reproach of Christ from their peers in the world.
9. This is a time to pray for young leaders like David to stand against Satan's Goliaths.
10. This is a time to pray for bands of young men to surround God's anointed leadership like David's Mighty Fighting men-young men who are unafraid to do great exploits for the Kingdom of God.
11. This is a time for us to pray that the young Lions of Judah will rise up from their slumber and stretch themselves.
12. This is a time to pray that the Church of Tomorrow be greater than the church of Today.
